To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to extend the highest personal recommendation for Robert Drewnowski, Jr. in support of his application for a vice principal position in the Egg Harbor Township School District. Robert is an intelligent and hardworking person of outstanding character.

Robert is a New Jersey-certified educational leader with more than 21 years of education and leadership experience, including approximately three years providing administrative coverage as a Substitute Principal and Lead Teacher. He brings a calm, visible, and practical leadership style grounded in strong relationships, clear expectations, sound judgment, and consistent follow-through. Robert is experienced in student discipline, crisis response, staff support, family communication, school operations, curriculum leadership, assessment, and collaborative problem-solving. He is more than prepared to support a middle school community where student success, staff growth, safety, and daily organization must work together.

Robert possesses experience at the administrative and leadership level that makes him a qualified candidate for this position. He worked as a Substitute Principal/Lead Teacher in the Millville Public Schools from 2022-2025. In this position, he took on many important responsibilities. He provided visible administrative leadership across K-5 school settings, including arrival and dismissal, cafeteria and hallway supervision, assemblies, schoolwide routines, student discipline, family communication, staff support, and daily operational problem-solving. Robert also investigated student conflicts, gathered information from students and staff, communicated with families, applied appropriate consequences, and followed up to help students return successfully to the learning environment. He also responded calmly and decisively to urgent situations, including a student medical emergency requiring 911 activation, severe-weather procedures, safety concerns, and complex parent matters; coordinated communication with families, staff, emergency personnel, and district leadership.

Robert also possesses a great deal of professional teaching and curriculum experience. Recently, he worked as a K-5 Science Special Teacher in the Millville Public Schools. In this position, he coordinated standards-aligned science instruction across two elementary schools, adapting curriculum, assessment, routines, and hands-on learning for the full K-5 developmental span. He also wrote and refined inquiry-based STEM units while maintaining instructional continuity across buildings, schedules, classroom teachers, and student groups. Lastly, he used observations, formative checks, student products, and performance tasks to adjust instruction, identify unfinished learning, and provide intervention or extension.

Robert has been recognized multiple times for his exemplary teaching and leadership skills. Some of these include Teacher of the Year at R.M. Bacon Elementary School in 2012 and the Board of Education recognition for 20 years of dedicated service in 2025. He was also the recipient of multiple mathematics and science mini-grants supporting hands-on, standards-aligned learning. In his community, Robert served as President and Vice President for the Upper Township Football Association, where he coordinated families, coaches, volunteers, law enforcement, emergency services, league officials, and community stakeholders.

Robert is an excellent educator, who possesses a teaching style that is truly innovative and unique. He uses a variety of strategies to make his teaching more effective. His lesson plans are always engaging and interesting to all his students. He is cooperative, hardworking, and extremely competent. Robert has a wonderful rapport with people of all ages. His ability to connect with his students and his talent at teaching simple concepts, as well as more advanced topics, are both truly superior. He cares deeply about each of the students in his class and works hard to make sure that no one is left behind. He is a driven, organized educator, who develops inspiring relationships with both his students and coworkers. Robert is always consistently well prepared, enthusiastic, and intelligent. He is highly motivated to learn and adapts quickly. His professional approach and diligent work ethic are truly admirable.

Robert possesses strong leadership qualities. He is passionate about his work both in the classroom and in his community. He is adaptable, open-minded, and creative. Robert regularly utilizes data and resources to adapt his teaching methods to better himself and his students. He is constantly exploring options to gather resources to improve the quality of his teaching. Victor is a team player, who works well with his colleagues to build positive relationships. He leads others by engaging, inspiring, and motivating them to improve and become even more effective educators through their actions.

Robert exhibits the drive for success and a determination to excel in all aspects of life. He has shown himself to be an honest, hardworking, and personable individual. I genuinely believe that he would be an asset to any educational institution. With this considered, it is a privilege to write this letter for him. If you would like to discuss Robert's attributes further, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,
